

Girl's Crochet Poncho

Reading companion • Complete pattern follows

Size and gauge

One child size: 8–10 years, chest 26–28 inches; body length approximately 16 inches from neckline. Gauge: 12 sc and 13 rows per 4 inches. Purchase allowance: three balls of the listed Bernat Pop; this is not measured consumption for substitute yarn.

Construction path

Start at the neckline with 94 chains, work the foundation sc round, then the granny-cluster body. The two V points make the front and back corners. Keep markers at those points as the body grows; the extra corner clusters add two clusters per repeat round.

Round 3 punctuation

The first V-point direction has an unclosed parenthesis. Read both V-point spaces symmetrically: (3 dc, ch 1) twice in the point space. This includes the chain space after the second cluster. Keep all ordinary spaces as 3 dc, ch 1. Check both corners against the finished outline before continuing.

Fit and finishing

Check that the neck passes comfortably over the wearer's head. Make the drawstring as directed and secure its ends. Do not resize solely by substituting a larger hook; there is no multi-size table in this download. Follow the yarn label for washing and support the garment while wet.
